cerning the Central Committee's decision to support General Alberto Enriquez Gallo in the forthcoming presidential elections. Local leaders in Guayaquil were incensed because they were not consulted before the decision was made by top Party leaders in Quito. Pedro Saal and Enrique Gil Gilbert, in defending the Central Committee's action, stated that Enriquez is the only presidential candidate who has given the Party any encouragement. They also stated that the Party reserves the right to intervene at any time if Enriquez does not adhere to the desires of the Communist Party.
